HANDS RAW AND SCALY

Itched and Burned Terribly—Could Not Move Thumbs Without Flesh Cracking—Sleep Impossible.

CUTICURA SOON CURED ECZEMA

"An itching humor covered both my hands and got up over my wrists and even up to the elbows. The itching and burning were terrible. My hands got all scaly and when I scratched, the surface would be covered with blisters and then crack raw. The eczema got so bad that I could not move my thumbs without flesh cracking. I could not sleep. I could not bear to touch my hands with water. This went on for three months and I was fairly worn out. At last I got the Cuticura Remedies and in a month I was cured. Walter H. Cox, 16 Somerset St., Boston, Mass., Sept. 25, 1908."

BROADWAY THEATER.

The House of a Thousand Candles.

The appearance of The House of a Thousand Candles at the Broadway Theater this evening promises to be an event decidedly out of the ordinary.

The play is a powerful dramatization of the novel of the same name and contains all its many interesting episodes and strange characters. There is the mysterious Bates, the man with a past, which will be enacted by Wayne Campbell, an actor of rare ability, and who is said to be the ideal artist for the part. Then there is the vanishing Glenara, the daring and spirited young Glenara, the villainous Pickering, the bright Irishman, Larry Donovan, the pugilistic preacher, Rev. Dr. Blodgett, the lovely school girl, Marion Devereaux and her equally pert companion, Gladys Armstrong.

Man and Wife.
The public always gets what it calls for, because, no matter what the satirist may say, the author must make a living, and he can do this only by satisfying the public demand. Whether or no the author of Man and Wife, is to be given at the Broadway Theater on Friday and Saturday, November 5 and 6, has succeeded in doing this remains to be proved. But he has at least had the courage to face his convictions and has dealt frankly and honestly with some of the pitfalls of married life. He has treated the subject seriously, and a subject that deserves to be treated, but while he points his moral he does it without preaching, and he adorns his tale with comedy scenes that bring many hearty laughs. The result is said to be a play of more than usual interest which holds attention to the last.

BREED THEATER.

Stirring Bill of Motion Picture Novelties.

A programme of unusual interest is being presented at the Breed Theater this week, and the tremendous success of the feature picture, The Hand Organ Man, is winning admirers daily.

The seductive notes of a real bandorgan played in the orchestra, being heard in every seat, and the beautiful scenery, the several scenes. This wonderful, silent melodrama is one of exceptional merit, and the photographic accuracy and richness of color values is most noticeable. As modest as the title is, the picture is crowded with exciting and lifelike events, truthfully portraying the bohemian existence in New York's Little Italy.

There are some pictures carrying a great moral, and among them is the splendid one entitled The Poor Girl's Romance, depicting the vicissitudes of an existence in a crowded city with no friends or money.

A wonderful mechanical picture is on the list, and the truly artistic singing of Miss Volcott in her happy selection, The Jewel of Asia, from The Gaiety, calls for an insistent encore, to which she responds with her frank and simple rendition of the over-regular Annie Laurie, for which she receives liberal applause. She sings the beautiful popular home ballad, entitled Why the Purple Shavers, from The Golden Grain, delighting her many hearers.

The Festival of the Chrysanthemum. Preparations for this charming entertainment are progressing rapidly and the Halle club girls are confident that everyone who attends will have a delightful time.

On the stage in the tea gardens a continuous vaudeville will be given both afternoons and evenings.

Here are the names of some of the Japanese costume dances, and of the pretty girls who will give them:

Umbrella Dance.
Miss Grumert
"Choo-choo-san," Miss McRobbie
"Waltz," Miss Enos
"Glory," Miss Barry

Chrysanthemum Dance.

Flower Dance.
"Black Eyes," Miss Della Woodmance
Seven charming songs will be given by "Cherry Blossom," Miss Woodmance, and "Lotus Flower," Miss Delaney.

"Kito," the Japanese juggler, will mystify and little "Purple Eyes," Miss Elliott, will sing Japanese love songs.

The splendid orchestra led by "Gisaburo," H. T. Miller, will be heard both afternoons and evenings.

Orrine Does Cure DRUNKENNESS

This is a positive fact known to tens of thousands of wives and mothers of this land. They know Orrine is a reliable remedy for the cure of drunkenness because it has restored their loved ones to lives of sobriety and usefulness. Every one of these women bought Orrine with full confidence that it would effect a cure or their money would be refunded to them if it failed. This guarantee is in each box. No other remedy for the cure of drunkenness is sold with this liberal guarantee, but Orrine has been so uniformly successful that the makers want the buyers to know that they have full protection if it should fail in any instance. We never purchase Orrine for patients, but this letter came to us from Dr. Nolte, Eighth and Race streets, Philadelphia, Pa. Read it and you will readily appreciate why Orrine is so well thought of.

"I have a remarkable case of inebriety under my personal observation. The patient drank heavily for fifteen years and reached a degraded condition, which caused the breaking up of his family and separation from his wife. Every hope was given up of ever saving the man from his strong desire for drink. I was pleased to receive Orrine, finally persuaded him to voluntarily take treatment for his diseased condition. It was my pleasure to recommend Orrine, your liquor habit cure, and the treatment was taken faithfully. This was two years ago, and the patient is now in a healthy condition and still abstains from the use of stimulants. He has sold Orrine for a number of years and has always found it to be satisfactory. I believe you have an exceptionally good treatment for this disease."

Orrine is prepared in two forms. No. 1, a powder, absolutely tasteless and odorless, given in food or drink. Orrine No. 2, in pill form, is for those who wish to cure themselves. Orrine costs only 25¢ a box. The guarantee is in each box. Write for Free Orrine Booklet, mailed in plain sealed envelope to Dr. Orrine Co., 347 Orrine Building, Washington, D. C. Orrine is for sale in this city by N. C. Sevin & Son.

They know Orrine is a reliable and efficacious remedy for drunkenness and they will not offer you a substitute.
